SUMMER SEARCH WELCOMES NEW CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

San Francisco - October 30, 2017 – Summer Search, a national youth development and college success organization, welcomes Dr. Marc Spencer as its new Chief Executive Officer. Dr. Spencer joins the San Francisco based nonprofit today.

Dr. Marc Spencer brings a 25-year track record of successfully scaling youth and community-serving organizations, and is dedicated to youth development and opportunity. Marc most recently served as the CEO of Juma Ventures, a national nonprofit striving to break the cycle of poverty by paving the way to work, education, and financial capability for youth. Marc is committed to social justice and equity and helping underserved communities thrive. He is eager to bring his inspiring entrepreneurial spirit to Summer Search's evidence-based critical mentoring approach.

"This is an incredible opportunity for me to join Summer Search as CEO," says Marc. "Summer Search has consistently produced impressive, measurable results. Its mentoring model is effective, so now it's time to think strategically about sustainable scale. I look forward to charting the path to lead Summer Search into its next phase of growth and impact."

About Summer Search

Summer Search is a national youth development and college success organization dedicated to creating greater equity by increasing the number of students from low-income backgrounds who successfully enter and complete college. We provide high school and college students with developmental opportunities and resources to strengthen their college-going identities and readiness to become first-generation college graduates and socially responsible leaders.
